Narrative Power Analysis Worksheet

Story Elements	Status Quo	Change
	(deconstruct)	(construct)
Conflict How is the conflict being framed? Who is the conflict between (X vs. Y)
Characters Who are the victims? Villains? Heroes? Who are the messengers who tell the story?
Imagery (show, don't tell) How does the story show us (rather than tell us) what's important? How does the story engage our values and encourage us to choose sides?  Foreshadowing How does each story show us the future? What is the vision that the story offers to resolve the conflict?
Assumptions What are the underlying assumptions? What does someone have to believe to accept the story as true?
Interventions What are the other story's vulnerabilities? Limits? Contradictions? Lies? How can underlying assumptions or values be exposed?
